American Legion Post 39 News and Happenings

Next General Membership meeting is Wednesday, February 20, at 7:30pm.

Next meeting of the Executive Board is Tuesday, February 12, at 6:30pm.

Frank Carney, former Legionnaire of Post 39, passed away in January. His funeral was held on January 17. Flowers were sent to Post 161 from Post 39 in honor of Frank.

David Penman, former Legionnaire of Post 39, also passed away in December.

Post 39 is holding a Pot Luck luncheon on Super Bowl Sunday, February 3, beginning at 2pm. Come celebrate with us and enjoy the food, fun, drinks and good cheer, (even if our Broncos were eliminated).

The Post is holding a fund raiser on Saturday, February 9, at 11am, (WEATHER PERMITTING), celebrating the Manitou Springs Mardi Gras/Carnival parade. Drinks, chips, brats, hot dogs, etc. will be served. Come join in the festivities and help support your Post.

The American Legion Mid-Winter Conference was held at the Crown Plaza hotel during the weekend of January 26 and 27. Districts and Posts from all over the state of Colorado were represented. Attending from Post 39 were Commander Sharon O'Donnell, Chaplain Al Lamphere, Adjutant Ron Lacroix and E-board member Tom Coca. Representing the Auxiliary was President Annie Walters and Vice President Amanda Strzyewski. Topics covered included:

- Membership growth and renewal. Districts and Posts achieving or exceeding membership goals were recognized.
- Status updates of Legion programs and projects
 - Legion committee updates
 - Boys and Girls State delegate updates
- Status of veterans legislation initiatives

Thanks to Manitou Springs Storage for the generous contribution of your services to Post 39. Your continued support is greatly appreciated.
